WASHINGTON. Dec. 26.—The endorsement and support of the treasury department was given today to the Capper agricultural credits bill, as against its principal rival, the Anderson-Lenroot credits measure, which recently was introduced into the coast and house with the backing of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and other government officials

Secretary Mellon, in testimony presented at closing hearings today of the senate banking committee on farm credits legislation and in a letter sent to Senator McLean of Connecticut, the committee chairman came out in support of the Capper bill, with minor modifications and with an amendment to extend for nine months after next June 20, the farm loan powers of the war finance corporation.

Dry Navy Disabled New York Is Flooded

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.-With the sub-chaser Hansen, "federal dry navy" of the port of New York, tied up at the Battery with engines disabled, the Narrows was left unguarded tonight long enough for 15 rum runners to slip into port with nearly seven million dollars worth of liquor for New Year's, the police department was advised

The 15 little vessels are believed by prohibition officials to have aboard at least 60,000 cases of liquor. They represent only a part of the fleet of rum-laden craft which since a few days before Christmas had been lying outside the three-mile limit, awaiting opportunity to run the gauntlet into the city.

Federal Prohibition Zone Chief Appleby was amazed when he learned that the Hansen. flagship of his "dry fleet," was tied up at her pier.

Celebrated Contractors Accused In Grand Jury's Indictments

WASHINGTON. Dec. 30.—Beneddet Crowell, former assistant secretary of war, and six other war-time efficials of the war department, were charged today in an indictment returned by a special federal grant jury here, with conspiracy to defraud the government and with delaying and defeating the administration of law.

The seven defendants were said by the jury to have participated unlawfully in the award of contracts let by the government during the war and after the armistice. Involving expenditures totalling hundreds of millions of dollars, and in which some of their number, had a necessity interest.

The indictment was the first of its kind to be returned as a result of investigations of war fraud cases initiated by Attorney General Daugherty.
Others are expected to follow completion of the presentation of evidence department of justice agents.
